

Night Orienteering at Yellow Creek SP

by the Western Pennsylvania Orienteering Club

Where: Yellow Creek S.P. South, Day Use Area, Penn Run, PA

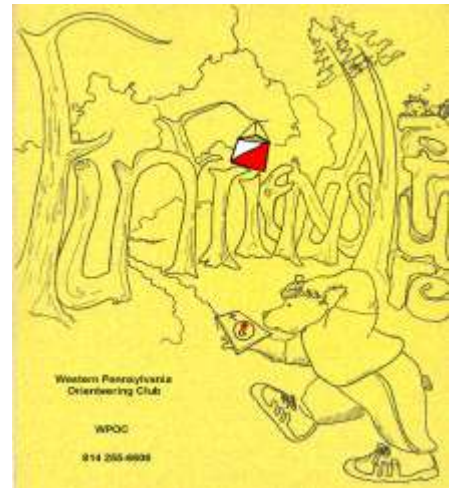

When: Saturday, May 5, 2018; sign-in 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm

What is Orienteering? Orienteering is a competitive form of land navigation. It is for all ages and degrees of fitness and skill, and all-weather. It provides the suspense and excitement of a treasure hunt. The object of orienteering is to locate control points by using a map and compass to navigate through the woods.

What to bring? You will need to bring is a compass (if you do not have one, we can loan you one), and appropriate footwear to walk in the woods.

Event Details: A 2.5-hour Score course in the dark is offered for experienced orienteers. This is not recommended for true beginners; but anyone with at least some orienteering experience can participate.

- Sign In 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm
- Map distribution 8:00 pm
- Mass start at 8:30 pm; must finish by 11:00 pm

Required Equipment: Compass, whistle, light with extra batteries

Cost: $5.00 per person; each person must purchase a map.

Event Location: Yellow Creek S.P., Lakeside pavilion, Penn Run, PA. Eight miles east of Indiana. Look for red-and-white arrow signs.
